Singers are to learn individual parts on their own so that mass rehearsals at Faxon Kenmar can be devoted to working on interpretation, expression, style, dynamics, etc. The majority of mass rehearsal time will NOT be spent on learning individual notes although we will address any note concerns that seem to be a problem for that individual voice part. CD recordings will be made available for each voice part. The goal of the mass rehearsals is to make music not learn notes.

I am so delighted that you are going to be joining us for this annual event gathering church musicians to sing at Faxon Kenmar United Methodist Church, No auditions will be conducted! Any youth or adult who has a love of sacred choral music is encouraged to participate. Spread the word and invite others from throughout the area. Remember the Deadline: December 15, 2016!
